Padma Resort Ubud Reveals “The Spa” and Marks its Grand Opening

Ubud, Bali – From the sleepy Puhu Village in Bali, Padma Resort Ubud reveals another well-being facility that is ‘The Spa’. Validate its presence in Ubud as an internationally-renowned wellness destination that allures spa enthusiasts from around the world.

Deriving concept from the mystique of nature, this spacious spa complex plays with the cave-style interior and make use of the natural light to amplify the design. Located on the garden level next to Ubud’s longest infinity pool, surrounded by blossoming gardens and soothing water features, The Spa at Padma Resort Ubud is a sophisticated sanctuary that welcomes you to experience inner bliss.

Being the first spa independently managed by Padma Hotels, this became a new milestone for the corporate to go further as a local Indonesian brand. As acclaimed by Tjipjanto Soerjanto, Padma Hotels’ Director of Operations, “We are so thrilled to open The Spa to mark the Grand Opening of Padma Resort Ubud on the 28th February 2016.”

The Spa has six treatment rooms that can be used for single or couple treatment, two consultation rooms and a lounge. Our team of impeccably trained Indonesian therapists is on hand to deliver results-driven treatments and therapies, using the product of ELEMIS and a local brand, Republic of Soap, The Spa offers a numerous choices of treatment ranging from Frangipani warm oil massage, Deep Tissue Massage, Body Boreh treatment, Royal Lulur and Balinese massage just to name a few.
