PRESS RELEASE

Unwind in the Newly Renovated Payangan Lounge Padma Resort Ubud

Ubud, March 2023 - Adding more colour to its dining destinations, Padma Resort Ubud unveils the newly revamped Payangan Lounge. Just like its name, it was all inspired by the serene atmosphere of Payangan highlands, where the resort is located. With its relaxed open-air space amidst lush greenery, Payangan Lounge is sure to quickly become guests' favourite.

Just a step away from the lobby, Payangan Lounge is open every day from 12PM to 12AM. Surrounded by lush gardens and koi ponds, Payangan Lounge is the perfect spot at the resort to unwind after breakfast, enjoy afternoon tea, or savour pre-dinner aperitifs throughout the day and into the evening.

Along with the talented Pastry Chef, Nicolas Fauzi, Payangan Lounge serves an array of artisan sweets from chocolate bonbons to cakes, as well as nibble, pâtisserie, coffee, and cocktails. Some of Chef Nico's creations are inspired by Indonesian traditional snacks and the surroundings, such as the Klepon Cake, a coconut and palm sugar dessert shaped like bamboo that grows around the resort. Another signature item is Kintamani Bali Coffee Chocolate Bon Bon, which highlights the taste of Kintamani coffee. Guests are also spoiled by the extensive assortment of savoury menu such as Baked Nachos, Quiche Lorraine, Classic Bruschetta, and many more. In addition, Payangan Lounge offers a variety of delicious homemade cookies that pair perfectly with a hot latte.

For those interested in cocktails, start a conversation with the bartender to discover a refreshing series of hand-crafted cocktails. Featuring hand-picked herbs and locally sourced ingredients, one cocktail not to be missed is The Payangan, which uses arak bumbung as its base, mixed with homemade cinnamon syrup and angostura bitters. For a unique cocktail with hints of spice, Cucumber Chilirita would be a perfect choice. Using green chilli and homemade chilli liqueur, this cocktail is well mixed with tequila reposado,
